It appears that we shall not need to prepare

Dear Bob:

The Program Committee has completed the preliminary program for the annual meeting in St. Louis. For the present we seem to have a sufficient number of papers so that I do not believe we need to trouble you for the material you suggested, in your recent letter to me on this subject.

This year we are having a joint session on Thursday afternoon, which is the second day of our meeting, with the American Association of Industrial Physicians and Surgeons. The Program Committee would appreciate it very much if you would undertake to preside at this session jointly with the presiding officer of the AAIP&S.

I have taken the liberty of placing your name as the joint presiding officer for the afternoon session. I hope that your reply will confirm my action.

Sincerely yours,

Jack

J. J. Bloomfield.
