

of Helen Bolton.

Mabel A. Lewis

Mabel A. Lewis, 80, died today at Pacific Home, 1055 Inglewood Drive. She was the widow of Willis O. Lewis. Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. today at Pierce Hollywood Mortuary, 5050 a Monica Blvd., and friends asked to omit flowers. Interment in Rosedale Cemetery follow. Mrs. Lewis leaves sons and two daughters, Miss E. Lewis, DeWitt T. Lewis, Emma May Moxley and L. Merriam.

Mrs. Georgia C. Furlong

Funeral services for Mrs. Georgia C. Furlong, 58, widow of James Furlong, Mayor of Vernon for many years, will be recited today at 8 p.m. at the chapel of Cunningham & O'Connor, 850 W. Washington Blvd. Requiem mass will be celebrated tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. at Calvary Mausoleum Chapel. She had resided at 2609 Clark Ave., Burbank, for the past two years. Mrs. Furlong leaves her son, James J. Furlong.

Willard W. Burgess

Funeral services for Willard W. Burgess, 54, of 102 S. Mountain View Ave., attorney, who died Saturday, will be conducted by Forest Lawn Mortuary at 3:30 p.m. today in the Wee Kirk o' the Heather. Mr. Burgess was a major in the infantry in World War I, and also a veteran of World War II. He leaves his widow Lucille and two brothers.

Dr. Clara M. Phillips

output of aircraft has fallen below the prewar levels of 1930, and contended they could not expand from that point fast enough.

Los Angeles Times
9-30-1947

And a industry expressed belief the country is "beginning to get" a war warning now.

The spokesman was Oliver P. Echols, who retired from the Army Air Forces as a major general to become president of the Aircraft Industries Association.

Germans Aid Russ

"I think Russia is doing everything it possibly can to develop air power," Echols said, "and I think they can. They have the German know-how along with the start they already had."

He pointed out that aircraft production today is less than at the start of 1930—a point from which it took five years to reach the war peak.

Expansion plans are based on a one-year warning of conflict, Echols said, but there is no assurance the nation will have such a warning.

Town Hall to Hear Gov. Stassen Speak

Former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota, candidate for the Republican nomination for President, will arrive in Los Angeles at 7:30 a.m. tomorrow by American Airlines to deliver a noon address to members and guests of Town Hall.

He will hold a press conference tomorrow morning and, after conferences with local supporters in the afternoon, will be the guest of Louis B. Mayer, motion-picture producer, in the eve-taking $320 in veterans "readjustment allowances" during a period when he earned $846 with a rubber company.

Additionally placing Rivers on two years' probation and ordering him to repay the sum illegally received between last Oct. 4 and Jan. 17, Judge Moffatt declared:

"I will give a jail sentence in

tween April 21 and he earned $195.40

FLOWERS

Robert

837 So. Flower

$349 DOES THE TRICK PAINTS A ROOM NEAT & QU

Kem-Tone

THE MIRACLE OIL
AND RESIN WALL FINISH

You can paint a room yourself with Kem-Tone! Cover dull walls, or wallpaper, in the morning—Move back into a fresh, colorful room that same afternoon. No muss! No fuss! No bother!

ONE COAT COVERS
most interior surfaces—even wallpaper!
APPLIES LIKE MAGIC!

DRIES IN 1 HOUR!
NO "PAINTY" ODOR!
WASHES EASILY!
LOVELIEST COLORS!

$349

enough
average

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS CO.

1501 West 7th

VENETIAN BLIND

the 'BLIND' MAN