Barnes, of the Service Mens Wives' Club, wrote for fifteen labels to be used by members of her organization.

A young women's group of the Methodist Church in Greenfield sent for twenty-five labels, after Mrs. Fern W. Whitlock, who sent packages last year and is repeating around the Bay region.

With your labels, you will receive mailing instructions, and a list of suggested gifts, to help you prepare your packages.

Won't you prepare YOUR share of the Christmas Ship's cargo as soon as you are able—and send for your package labels today?

HOW TO PAINT OVER WALLPAPER IN ONE EASY (AND SPEEDY) LESSON!

Here is Lieutenant Dickins' story of the fight as told by him at a news conference in the Bethesda Hospital:

"About 12:30 (10:30 p. m.) my friend, whom I am not going to name, and I arrived at the Statler Hotel with intentions of going to a naval officers' dance which, we understood, was being held on the mezzanine lounge of the hotel.

TOLD OF SPEECH.

"Upon arrival we perceived several hundred men congregating outside the ballroom, and upon inquiry we found that the dance had been postponed in preference to a speech that had just been made by the President.

"While we were on the mezzanine lounge inquiring as to the whereabouts of the dance, several of the group of men accosted us, telling us that they were members of the Teamsters Union and that the President had just made a fine speech.

"They then asked my friend
