All - Outlook won't work on my laptop, but cc'd my official account.

I updated the "advisory" to accurately reflect the trip, as the schedule has changed due to flight issues and also with some edits that Sarah suggested. See below for approval.

Once this gets final approval AND I get word that the Administrator's flight is on the ground TOMORROW morning in Rabat, I will give y'all the go ahead to send out.

Administrator Pruitt to Attend Bilateral Meetings with U.S. Partners in Morocco

Visit to promote exportation of environmental technology and innovation

WASHINGTON, DC (December 11, 2017) - U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) Administrator Scott Pruitt will attend bilateral meetings in Morocco this week, where he will convey U.S. priorities for environmental cooperation and innovation.

Administrator Pruitt will attend various meetings from December 11-13 in Rabat and Marrakech, Morocco. He will meet with Moroccan leaders, including members of the King's Cabinet, to discuss the environmental chapter of the U.S.-Morocco Free Trade Agreement. Members of Administrator Pruitt's senior staff will participate in a roundtable with U.S. companies to discuss exportation of environmental technology and innovation. Administrator Pruitt is the first of President Trump's cabinet to visit Morocco, ensuring the Administration's environmental priorities are conveyed with our partners abroad and collaboration between the two countries is ongoing.
