The Detroit Free Press
DETROIT, MICH.
D. 818,096 SUN. 714,631

AUG 23 1976

MOBIL GIVES PCB REPORT: Mobil Corp. has reported what may be the first association of polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs) with cancer in humans. The exposure occurred at Mobil's Paulsboro, N.J., petrochemcial plant, where a PCB product made by Monsanto Co. was being used. The "very preliminary" study was reported in a letter from researchers to the New England Journal of Medicine.