Looks good with Steve's edits. I believe "corporations" should be plural, eh? Only thing I would add/plug is the energy burdens report. You could add to his quote, saying: "I look forward to more reforms that reduce regulatory burdens and foster greater access to our nation's Arctic energy resources."

I'm good with this but have a few minor tweaks to the boss's quote in red:

“In May I put my hand on TAPS and pledged to help fill it by putting Alaskans back to work on the North Slope. Holding the biggest-ever NPR-A lease sale will help achieve our goal of American Energy Dominance,” said U.S. Secretary of the Interior Ryan Zinke. “Responsible development of petroleum resources in Alaska means creating good-paying local jobs and revenue for the communities while protecting vital subsistence resources that Alaska Native communities depend on. I'm excited to work with our Alaska Native Corporation and Tribal partners, North Slope Mayor Harry Brower, Senator Murkowski, and others to put Alaska to work.”
