

John McKenzie scored his first two goals of the season and assisted on two others for Boston.

Walt Tkaczuk's goal at 3:56 of the third period and the shutout goaltending of Ed Giacomini lifted New York past Montreal and gave the Canadiens their first loss after four wins. Giacomini turned aside 25 shots in recording his second shutout in three appearances.

Andre Lacroix' two goals and a third period tally by Bobby Clarke helped Philadelphia beat Toronto as the Flyers moved into a tie for first place in the West with Chicago and St. Louis. Dave Keon and Jim Harrison scored for the Maple Leafs who dropped their third game in four outings.
