Children Blinded By Dynamite Caps

YUBA CITY, Calif., Sept. 16 (AP)—Two children were blinded and the sight of two others was in doubt today as the result of an explosion of dynamite caps last night.
Their 55-year-old grandmother suffered serious abdomen injuries, and two other children serious hurts.
Nine physicians at two hospitals worked over the youngsters, who are the children of Uddell and Uell Reynolds, twin brothers who live at nearby Sutter County ranches. The grandmother is Mrs. Elizabeth Reynolds.
Blinded were Larry, 8, who lost both eyes and may lose his left hand; and Jimmy, 6, both sons of Uell Reynolds. Ronald, 7, and Tommy, 5, both sons of Uddell, may lose their sight, physicians said. Barbara, 6, and Freddie, 7, were also injured.

Deputy Sheriff Kenneth Hooper said he had no information on how the children obtained the caps.
