Dear [REDACTED]

I have been informed by my DG GROW REACH colleagues that you have scheduled a meeting with them on 14 July on the same topic. Since our two Units are co-responsible for REACH and we collaborate on all topics concerning PFAS, I propose that I join that meeting.

Regards

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

I would like to follow up on this email exchange below. On behalf of the AmCham EU Environment Committee, we would be delighted to set up an informal exchange of views on the topic of PFAS over the WebEx platform.

Would there be a suitable time to meet in the coming weeks, for example on the week of 13 July or the week of 20 July?

Many thanks in advance!

Kindest regards,
[REDACTED]

Dear [redacted],

On behalf of Mr Sadlauskas I would like to thank you for your message and the request to meet and discuss European Commission's work on PFAS.

Unfortunately, due to a busy agenda Mr Sadlauskas is unavailable for such a meeting, but he would like to suggest that you meet [redacted] (in copy), [redacted] working on the file, as she would be best placed to discuss this topic. Should you find this suitable, please contact [redacted] directly at [redacted]@ec.europa.eu.

Nevertheless, I would like to draw your attention to the fact that [redacted] is not available in June, so please be so kind and contact her in the beginning of July to find a date suitable for all.

Thank you in advance for your understanding. I remain at your disposal for any further questions you may have.

Sincerely,

European Commission

Subject: Meeting request from AmCham EU Environment Committee

Dear Mr Kestutis Sadlauskas,

I hope you are doing very well.

I am writing to you on behalf of the American Chamber of Commerce to the EU

(AmCham EU) to invite you to e-meet the leadership of the Environment Committee, and our issue leads on the topic of PFAS. We would be very interested to learn more about your work on PFAS and in an informal exchange of views on this topic.

We would be delighted to set up a Webex meeting at a time that would be suitable for you for example on the week of 22 June, should you be available and interested to e-meet us.

We look forward to hearing back from you.

In the meantime, wishing you an excellent day!

With kindest regards,
