

NEWS LETTER

ROOM 1815

No. 215 - 1946 January 24

ROCKWELL HEADS METALS GROUP OF TWO FUND-RAISING CAMPAIGNS

Fletcher W. Rockwell, president of National Lead Company, recently was appointed chairman of the Non-Ferrous Metals Group of both the Memorial Cancer Center Fund and the 1946 Salvation Army Campaign.

LEAKE APPOINTED TO EVANS SALES POST

Frederic Leake Jr. has been named assistant sales manager of Evans Lead Corporation by Ray Evans, manager of the division.

MAGNUS EXPANDS FITCHBURG, MASS. PLANT

The Magnus Metal division is enlarging the facilities of the Hardy foundry in Fitchburg, Mass., acquired by Magnus about a year ago. The plant, when completed, will provide employment for about 175 persons.

TWO NEW YORKERS PASS 30TH SERVICE MILESTONE

Wilson Seibert, Atlantic branch field representative, completed 30 years of service with the Company on November 24. Prior to joining the paint products sales force, Mr. Seibert worked in the metals department.

John Watts, of the metal department in New York, observed his 30th anniversary with the Company on December 29. Practically all of Mr. Watts' service has been in the metal sales field.

WATCH CERTIFICATES AWARDED DURING DECEMBER

The following men completed 25 years of service with the Company in December, thus earning watch certificates:

Roman C. May	- Atlantic	John F. Doyle	- General Offices
Leonard J. Travis	- Chicago	Joseph Bienkowski	- Magnus

MORE EMPLOYEES ENTER MILITARY SERVICE

Company employees who have recently been reported as entering the armed forces are:

Howard L. Miller	- Baroid	James R. La Pell	- Titanium, MacIntyre
Wallace R. Williams	- "	William Lidquist	- " "
William Murchison	- Chicago	Ernest Warren	- " "
Albert Annechino	- Magnus	Donato J. Bracco	- " New York
Arthur J. Post	- "	Ferman Middleton	- " St. Louis
		Michael Prigotsky	- Research Lab.

The service flags in the general offices in New York now show that 1940 employees answered the call to the colors.