Ryan,

I spoke with your ethics counsel on Friday. Any update? I'd love to confirm him today if possible.

Thanks,
Jay

Ryan,

I wanted to follow up on this request. How do things stand? Also, if we wanted to bump him up in the day, would that be possible? We were thinking 11:15 AM – 12:00 PM. As I mentioned, we are flexible, so no problem if not. We will accommodate him.

Thanks,

Jay

We're pretty flexible, but would love to have him join between 12:00 PM – 2:00 PM. Thanks for helping on this.

No, I've got it. No problem. I just need to run this through the scheduling because I think the Administrator would like to change his existing travel plans to accommodate this. Do you know when in the day he would speak?

Ryan,

I'm sure you're slammed so I wanted to kick this to the top of your box. Let me know if you need anything else.

Thanks,

Jay

Ryan,

Per my conversation with Samantha, I'd like to formally extend an invitation for Administrator Pruitt to speak at our upcoming American Opportunity Alliance meeting. The meeting will be on Thursday, September 28 in New York. We plan to gather from 8:30 AM – 4:00 PM and welcome him at any point during this window. We hope that the Administrator could address his role in the administration, the accomplishments to date, as well as his views on the current landscape.

Look forward to hearing back from you.

Best,

Jay

Good morning, greetings from Myrtle Beach. I had to come recover after witnessing yet another awful Bills game. Hope y'all had a great weekend. Just wanted to check in if you had a time that would work on the 27th? We currently have a few requests pending, but wanted to work around you. Our only conflict as of now is at 2:00.

Thanks again for agreeing to do this. See you next week.

Lisa

PS- Troy, Baltimore D got me 20 fantasy points- wahoo!

Hello!!! If it isn't two of my favorite people, EVER. Now that I've adequately flattered you..

John Crane, our oil and gas supplier division, is bring John Donatiello, VP of Global products to town September 27th. John has never really done the DC meeting tour with us and we would like to take him to all the places of interest. Of course, I thought of you both. Would you have time on the 27th to discuss the Methane re-proposal and the future of other rules and regulations you see coming? Really, just any issues you think he may find fascinating.

I included the link to John Crane below. We are the manufacturer of mechanical seals, supplying sealing device technology to oil and gas, chemical, water and other facilities.

Happy to discuss in further detail prior to the meeting. Please let me know a time that will work for you and we will do our best to accommodate.

Thank you, thank you!
