

1961 STOUT ST.
Denver, Colo. 80202 (303) 837-3883

E. C. C. C. UNIT
LUNO. MONTANA
S. DAK.
N. DAK.

Jack D. Torrey
1607 South Ivy Way
Denver, Colorado 80222
(303) 757-5859

Region: VIII

Regional Office

1971 - Present Occupational Safety and Health Administration, U. S. Department of Labor, Denver, Colorado, Associate Assistant Regional Director, Technical Support. Serves as technical advisor to the Regional staff, area offices, State programs, employers and employee groups.

1967 - 1971 Performed Industrial Hygiene functions in Denver District Office of the Office of Occupational Safety. Conducted inspections to enforce the Safety and Health requirements under the Public Contracts and Service Contract Acts. Monitored working conditions in the uranium mines. Established an Industrial Hygiene laboratory to support the enforcement program.

1958 - 1967 Served as Public Health Advisor in the Division of Radiological Health, DHEW. Established monitoring programs around the Enrico Fermi and Charlevoix Reactors in Michigan. Supervised the National Surveillance Network to determine gross radioactivity of daily air samples collected around the United States.

1947 - 1958 Served as Industrial Hygienist for the Colorado Department of Health in Denver. Evaluated the occupational health exposure of the workplaces in Colorado. This included the uranium miners study to determine the miners exposure to airborne alpha radiation.

1939 - 1947 Served as Chief Chemist, Denver Plant of American Manganese Steel Division. Supervised 4 chemists in the analysis of alloy steel, slag and raw materials used in the production of electric furnace steel.

Born: September 2, 1913 at Savanna, Illinois

Education: University of Denver (1938), B.S., major in Chemistry
University of California, Berkeley, M.P.H. Industrial Hygiene (1953)

OCC 4493