Nixon moved on to Phy Mu, a district center recently regained by the government after two months of occupation rule by the Communists. He handed out bubble gum to children and to bearded elders.

"Are your people discouraged?" he asked the village chief.

"No," the chief replied. "We are happy now."

Officially on a world tour on business, Nixon said his major impression since he arrived Wednesday was "the complexity of this battle."

"It will not be solved quickly," he said. "It will take time, patience and weapons. We must have economic and propaganda weapons to a sophisticated degree and these we are starting to develop.

"Young men I have seen in training are obviously willing to fight. Their morale factor is decisive.

"People who talk about things other than defending Viet Nam against the Communists should come here and see these people—people who just want to live in peace."

Youngest Principal At 27 Ages Fast

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (AP) At 27, Charles Bentley, new principal of Kernersville Junior High School, is the youngest principal among the 64 in the city-county school system. "But I've aged a lot since I got the job," admits the former teacher.

Rumors had circulated earlier that Malenkov had died.
