Dear Mr. Kelley:

Fursuant to Article 10 of the Agreement between the Company and this Union, this is to advise the Union desires to appeal to arbitration the J. C. Yandle's grievance #681909-6.

Your reply dated October 25, 1968 which was mailed to me by Mr. C. E. Van Horne on October 31, 1968 and was received by me on November 1, 1968 has been considered and the Union is of the opinion the disciplinary action was not for just cause and we stand ready to proceed with this grievance to arbitration as provided in the agreement.

I suggest that we meet on November 21, 1968 to determine if we can by mutual agreement select the impartial Arbitrator to hear this case. If the above date is agreeable for such a meeting please advise.

Yours very truly,

J. B. Stokes
