Your colors are you!

Surround yourself with the colors you like, by all means — but use these simple tips to help you get the most satisfaction from your choices.

Wall areas serve as a background for furniture, floor coverings and accessories you now own or plan to buy. You'll want to choose colors that best display these possessions.

Rooms with Northern or Eastern exposures need the cheer of warm tones. Rooms facing South or West benefit from the use of cool colors that temper the sunshine.

Dark or middle values of color give a room dignity—bright, warm colors give it excitement. The darker tones shrink a room in size, while light colors make a room seem larger.

Above all, you'll find that colors have emotional as well as functional values. Charming, colorful rooms radiate cheer, welcome your family and guests to enjoy their comfort and beauty. So choose colors that work for you. Let your selections reflect your taste, your mode of living . . . because the colors you live with are you!

Dress your rooms as you dress yourself, in modes flattering to you.

Colors sets the mood. Select shades to suit the purpose of individual rooms.

Colors contrast and hide interest, like a bride on a dramatic background.

Rooms too large? Paint walls a dark shade, ceiling one shade lighter. It will make the room seem smaller. Walls: Shalimar Flat Wall Enamel. Trim: Mulberry Satin Finish Enamel.

High ceiling? Lower it with a dark tone. Walls: Pearl Gray Flat Wall Enamel. Ceiling: Purple Lace Flat Wall Enamel.

To lower a ceiling, paint it off white or a pale shade of the wall color. Ceiling: Off White Flat Wall Enamel. Walls: Rose Cherokee Flat Wall Enamel.

Don't despair if your rooms lack perfect proportions—if they are too long or too short, if their ceilings are too low or too high, if wall areas are broken by too many doors or arborlets. Use color to correct these defects, as professional decorators do. Here are a few ideas for you—try your own skyright of hand!

To make a narrow room, paint end wall and ceiling in darker tones. Side Walls: Cashmere Pink. End Wall: Cayenne Pink. Ceiling: Rosebrier Flat Wall Enamel.
