Redo:

I believe it is an error by the reporter. Reclamation included $3 million in the FY 2017 Spending Plan from additional funding provided by Congress. The reporter should have stated 2017 instead of 2018. Below is a link to the summary page for the 2017 Spending Plan.

Scott:

The Desert Sun has a piece today on the State of California's plan for the Salton Sea. Within the article, it states: "The first $3 million of that federal funding pledge has been included in the Bureau of Reclamation's proposed budget for 2018." I didn't see any reference to the Sea in the budget release yesterday. I am hoping you can point me to confirmation of this request and any other specific program requests Reclamation is making for FY2018.

Many thanks and kind regards,

Eric
