I see we're scheduled for Thursday this week. Look forward to seeing you. My colleague Kevin Avery will join me.

John,

Appreciate the good wishes. One mariner to another I am still learning where the shoal water lies in the job.

I would love to meet with you regarding your innovations on water issues. I am out of the office until July 19th but I would ask Crystal to find some time late that week or any time thereafter that works for both of us.

Fair winds and following seas!

Lee

Congratulations on the new job.

At a convenient time would like to come over and see you, and talk about some of the innovative actions we are taking on water issues. Are you available the week of July 17th?

Regards
