Subject: FW: Does the EPA have a response to the court's methane rule?

Hi Chris,

Please attribute to an EPA spokesperson:

“We don’t comment on pending litigation.”

Additional background information: “Resume enforcing” is an imprecise and somewhat inaccurate way to describe the effect of issuing the mandate. The mandate issuing lifts the stay, so the rule’s requirements are now in effect. Enforcement discretion of the rule is within OECA.

Hello, Jahan

Christopher White, Daily Caller News Foundation energy reporter.

Does the EPA have a response to the court's order for the Trump administration to enforce Obama's methane rule?
