Hi Millan,

I've attached both the current and proposed with the later shift for the Administrator. Let me know when you have a solid idea of how you would like to proceed.

Thank you,
Lauren

SESSION I – A Country Worth Saving: Real People, Real Policy

Elites in America have failed to understand that there is a crisis in Middle America, both economic and cultural. They've pushed political correctness while Americans are looking for solutions for their health care, education, and community challenges.

Moderator: Genevieve Wood
*Senior Communications Advisor and Senior Contributor,
The Daily Signal*

Ryan T. Anderson, Ph.D.
*William E. Simon Senior Research Fellow in American Principles and Public Policy,
The Heritage Foundation*

Members' Lounge Open

4:30 – 5:15 p.m.
Marquis Ballroom
Salons 1-5, Level M2

SESSION II – Where is Liberalism Going?

The Obama Presidency was not good for the Democratic Party. The party not only lost more than 1,000 seats nationwide, it also veered farther to the left. By doubling down on identity politics, it has become even more illiberal and even more hostile to the American way of life. Where will liberalism and the Democratic party go from here?

David Azerrad, Ph.D.
Director, B. Kenneth Simon Center for Principles and Politics and AWC Family Foundation Fellow, The Heritage Foundation

5:15 – 6:45 p.m.

9:30 – 10:30 a.m.
Marquis Ballroom
Salons 1-5, Level M2

SESSION III –

America and the World: Are We Leading, Following or Getting Out of the Way?

After years of undefined objectives, the United States needs to articulate our role in global affairs. Are we spearheading strategies, working alongside allied states, or allowing other states to dictate?

Moderator: James Carafano, Ph.D.

Vice President for the Kathryn and Shelby Cullom Davis Institute for National Security and Foreign Policy and the E. W. Richardson Fellow, The Heritage Foundation

Eric Brown

Senior Research Fellow, Hudson Institute

Mark Dubowitz
