that Mr. McGowan was talking to you about, employed the pipecoverers at the Loch Raven Apartments; is that right?

A Sure.

Q Okay. Do you know who employed the electricians there?

A I don't know because I don't remember who they all were there. All I can tell you is that they were on the job.

Q Okay. How about the pipefitters? Do you know who employed them?

A No.

Q Can you remember the names of any of the gentlemen who were working for Reid-Hayden at the job with you?

A No, I don't remember any of them.

Q Now --

A All I can tell you that I was talking to them and all, horsing around.

Q Now, you talked a little bit with Mr. McGowan about the brown coat and the white coat.
