Unfortunately, the Secretary is on official travel next week so I think a call might be best in the short term. I added Chairman Babin to the Secretary's call list for this afternoon/next week. Are there any good days/windows of time that work well for him and I'll try to have the Secretary call then?

No worries. Sorry if you left a message it didn't get to me.

I just spoke with Chairman Babin and if possible, he would like to have a sit-down meeting next week. I know the Secretary has a very busy schedule. If a sit-down meeting doesn't work he is happy to do a phone call.

Appreciate all your help with this.

Sincere apologies for the delay. I gave your office a call on Friday and mistakenly did not follow up with an email. The Secretary is testifying on the Hill tomorrow, so this week has been pretty busy. We'd like to coordinate this call as soon as possible. Our schedule is difficult this week, so I'm thinking the best option may be for the Secretary to give the Chairman a call while he's in the car tomorrow afternoon or on Friday morning before his scheduled day starts. Would it be possible to give me the best number for the Chairman? I would be more than happy to give you a call or text you to give you a heads up about the call. The Secretary has a window of time from about 4:00PM-4:30PM tomorrow and from 8:15AM-9:00AM on Friday. If not, we can work to find time next week. Thanks so much for being flexible. Have a great evening!

Hey Charles,

I know you all have a lot on your plate right now given the recent tragedies you're working through. Our thoughts are with you, and we truly appreciate the Department's hard work during this difficult time.

That said, when Secretary Duffy's schedule allows, Chairman Babin would like the opportunity to reconnect with him and discuss areas of shared interest – particularly in light of Rep. Babin's new Chairmanship of the Science, Space, and Technology Committee and his role as the senior Texan on the Transportation and Infrastructure Committee. He's eager to explore ways to collaborate moving forward.

Please let us know a convenient time, and we'd be happy to coordinate. Looking forward to your thoughts!

Best,

Steve Janushkowsky
