Dear Dr. Kehoe:

Thank you very much indeed for your letter of the 15th which enclosed two copies of the Report No. VI of the Medical Committee. In a day or so I shall send you for your files a copy of the Report of this Committee of August, 1924. I do not believe that we would have any use for the appendices mentioned in your letter. Our check is enclosed in payment of the bill for copying the Report. To Dr.

Glad that you enjoyed the coffee. With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

James D. Carpenter
