RE: Sauveur Esquembre, et al v. Union Carbide
Corporation, et al - Case Number L-087117-84

Lottie Memice, et al v. PPG Industries, Inc.,
et al., including UCC - Case Number L-20509-86

I have attached for your handling the above two referenced cases which, as we discussed, were mistakenly routed to me. Due to the pending deadline of the Memice case, I secured a 20 day extension, the maximum permitted under New Jersey practice, for the due date of Union Carbide's answer, which renders the answer due on April 19th.

The answer in the Esquembre case is due within 35 days of date of service, which appears to have been March 12, 1986, rendering the answer due by April 16, 1986.
