I'm not sure how close you are to EPA Administrator Pruitt but I wanted to check to see if you could help me.

There is a LA with Senator Portman handling environmental matters who very much wants to go over to EPA and help drain that swamp. She is smart, capable and determined yet still young and has a passion to go after the phony science and regulatory excess of the EPA. She is also a family friend with solid party credentials and personal integrity.

I helped out Pruitt in his AG race back in Oklahoma but haven't been able to talk to anyone in his shop yet. And of course, Andy Wheeler who I know still isn't over there so I thought I'd check to see if you know anyone in his shop, and if so, would you forward the resume of Sarah Pearce to them?

Even though she's not from Texas -- where most Oklahomans rustle away our best talent, she is top notch and would be a good part of the EPA team.

Let me know if you have any questions...

Thanks

Mike Solon

I'll try. He comes Tuesday. So Wednesday may be good, but if nothing else getting together thereafter will be good.

I spoke to Trey this afternoon because Sundays is when I do interviews I guess. I'm getting names to the WH shortly. A few batches of RA's is what I'm thinking initially. I'd love to forward 2 to 3 next week.

This is my dinner... it's right up your alley. Why don't you come to this if you can make it? When does the president come over to the office?

Hi Jessica-

I wanted to personally invite you to a salon dinner Story Partners is hosting on Wednesday, March 29 from 6:30-8:30 p.m. The dinner and discussion will focus on proposed policies within the First 100 Days and how they will impact energy moving forward.

These intimate quarterly dinners bring together Hill, industry and media influencers to discuss the future of energy, and the policies and regulations that could affect the growth of the industry. This seated dinner is 100 percent off-the-record and serves as a catalyst for future discussions—connecting the right people to move our energy policy forward.

We've also worked with Lavagna to offer a family-style menu so that each person's bill will not exceed $50 (including food, drinks, tax, tip, etc).

Best,
Liz

Good morning Ryan:

I hope all is well and you are enjoying the challenges in your new position which I am sure consist of quite a few. I wanted to forward the attached letter that request a meeting with the Administrator by our association officers. Any help is appreciated.

Also, as you know James at Oklahoma Rural Water and I are at your disposal if we can assist you in any way. Let us know when you are back in OK and James has already committed to buy.

Thanks for all you have done and do for rural water.
