Rear Admiral James A. Brown
Commander
Norfolk Naval Shipyard
Norfolk, Virginia

Dear Admiral Brown:

I am attaching correspondence relating to tests to be conducted at the Norfolk Naval Shipyard.

I first requested permission from the Commander, Naval Ships Systems Command, Code 07B, Washington, D. C., a copy of the letter is attached.

The reply was received from Mr. Jerry Carwford, Head, Industrial Safety Staff, By Direction of Commander, Naval Ship Systems Command. We are willing to comply with the four proposals outlined in his letter dated 4 March 1970.

Kindly advise when it would be permissible to make the tests.

Yours very truly,

H. K. PORTER COMPANY, INC.
