Re: Arthur v. Union Carbide Corp., et al

Dear Bob:

Attached

As the attached statement relates to a case which is being handled as an insurance matter, I would appreciate your requesting Kemper to advise the SQUIRE, SANDERS & DEMPSEY law firm to bill them for all services relating to this case, and, of course, to pay this statement.

Regards,

James V. Murray

ARTHUR v. UNION CARBIDE CORP., et al
(Court of Common Pleas, Cuyahoga County, Ohio)

Received 4/4/78

Suit by the estate of a deceased employee of B.F. Goodrich Company claiming that his death resulted from angiosarcoma of the liver, caused by occupational exposure to vinyl chloride and/or poly vinyl chloride supplied by Union Carbide Corporation and approximately 27 other defendants.

$800,000 compensatory damages and $5,000,000 punitive damages are sought.

Union Carbide Corporation answered the complaint and denied liability. "Since this matter is before the court, I would prefer not to comment any further at this time."
