Dear Ms

Thank you for your mail.

Unfortunately we are not able to organize any more stakeholder meetings on the universal PFAS restriction dossier this year.

However you are kindly invited to send us written information, which we can then share with the Belgian Committee for REACH (BCR), who will be coordinating the Belgium position on this restriction dossier. For more information on the BCR you can consult the following webpage: https://www.reachinbelgium.be/index.php?page=comite-reach&hl=en_US

Kind regards,

Dear ,

I am reaching out on behalf of the _____, a leading multinational Japanese chemical company, committed to contributing to society through innovative solutions in three core business sectors: Material, Homes, and Health Care.

Our products are relevant for a broad range of EU industries such as renewable energy, chemical production (including ion exchange membranes), and advanced technologies that include optical fibre and lithium-ion batteries. Our products are exported from Japan to the European Union where Asahi Kasei has distribution sites in Belgium, as well as France, Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, and Sweden.

We are contacting you to request a meeting to discuss the PFAS REACH restriction proposal. We would appreciate the opportunity to exchange views on the proposal either in person or virtually. We would be happy to present to you our company and our position and discuss your views on the PFAS restriction proposal.

We are available at your convenience in the coming weeks.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us. We look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,

Account Manager
