Nowhere in your shop are you likely to find a 10" x 10" x 10" space occupied by an item of more concentrated usefulness than a keg of "Dutch Boy" White Lead.

Here, in one compact package, are the makin's—when used with proper thinners—of paint for many purposes: Outside woodwork; brick, stucco and concrete; asbestos-cement shingles; interior plaster and wallboard; enamel undercoats; and finish coats on metal.

"Dutch Boy" White Lead is a specialist in versatility—an all-purpose paint base.
