Alex –

I wanted to invite you to a speaking engagement to discuss the philosophy of US EPA transportation initiatives under Trump Administration.

Chevron is hosting our annual fly-in with our marketing and retail customers at the end of April and I believe the group would value your insights on how the US EPA may impact their business.

We have the following times available for a discussion no longer than 30 minutes:

- Monday, April 28th from 6:30pm – 8:30pm
- Tuesday, April 29th from 8am – 9:30am and 7pm – 9pm

Please let me know if your schedule allows addressing the group and I'm happy to answer any questions.

Regards,

Jason
