

Just behind the bride was a white satin wall hanging against which fell a garland of pink baby chrysanthemums. Mr. and Mrs. McNabb left later for a motor trip but are not revealing their destination. On their return, they will live in San Francisco, where the bridegroom is interested in the event. They are Mrs. Ray Lyman Wilbur and Dean Mary Yost of Stanford, and Mrs. Robert Gordon Sprout, and Dean Lucy Stebbins of the University of California.

Close to 1000 reservations have been made for the party, proceeds from which will go to the scholarship funds of Stanford and California. Tickets may be secured from Mrs. E. C. Ewell at the Stanford Women's Clubhouse.

Mills Honor Society Gives Formal Dinner

Members of Palisades Mills College honorary society for outstanding students, gave their semi-annual formal dinner Tuesday evening in honor of Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, president of the college; Mrs. Ben Shannon Allen, Palo Alto; Miss Perla Coleman, Mrs. Willard Smith, Mrs. Howard Brinton, and Miss Esther A. Dayman, all honorary members of the society.

Among the student members present were Miss Betty Johnston of Berkeley, president, and Miss Marjorie Brown of Palo Alto, vice president.

HALLOWEEN PARTY GIVEN AT MOUNTAIN VIEW

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Oct. 25 (Special to the Times)—Sigma Beta held a Halloween party Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. A. M. Ruesas on Bailey avenue. Mrs. Tom Morris of San Francisco was co-hostess. Mrs. W. C. Davis, president, named the following chairmen and committees for their annual Harvest festival which is to be held November 28: Mrs. William Kogel, schots, fish pond; Mrs. Wendell Grubb, candy; Mrs. Chris Madsen, refreshments; Mrs. Bert Erichsen, Mrs. M. D. Alken and Mrs. Walter Doust, entertainment.

Mothers' Tea Held At McLeod Home

Seventy-five mothers of sophomores attending the Palo Alto High School met for tea yesterday at the home of Mrs. Duncan McLeod. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Ralph Evans, Mrs. Charles Reynolds, Mrs. Buford O. Brown, Mrs. Louise Dekker, Mrs. Louis Love, Mrs. Benjamin DeRoy, Mrs. Leonard Fuller, Mrs. C. E. Weston, and Miss Harriet Nelson of the high school faculty, who is class sponsor.

Girls who helped in serving were Helen Weston, Mary Esther Fuller, Mrs. Ruth Jordan, Mrs. Ann Brown, Beas Mannon, Frances Dekker, and Estalyn Kreps. Miss Mannon played two groups of cello solos, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. M. Mannon.

ENGLISH CLUB TO INITIATE MEMBERS

Fourteen new members will be initiated into English Club tonight at a meeting at the Stanford campus home of Mrs. Frances Theresa Russell, professor of English. They are Rosemary Benti, niece of Kathleen N. Benti; Rosemary Evans, Mrs. Perry, Elizabeth Perry, Jane Hillebrand, Mary Ellen Leary, Anne Van Wageningen, Jean Verhoogen, Robert Balzer, Don Brown, Dave Mellinkoff, Frank O'Neill, John McFarland, and Arthur Wright.

The newly-elected members are to present their "autobiographies." Plans for the appearance of William Thornton's Shakespeare Repertory Company on the campus November 14 will be discussed.

WOMEN ENTHUSIASTS HOLD BRIDGE TOURNAMENT

In the women's individual tournament held Tuesday afternoon at the Palo Alto Bridge Club, Mrs. Leonard Read won first prize and Mrs. Arthur Cohnreich of Atherton held second high score.

The Palo Alto club is still beaming with pardonable pride over capturing second honors at the weekly tournament of the San Jose Elks' Club Monday night. Mrs. Helene Allen and Mrs. Edward Liston came in just behind the winners, Phil Hamner, Aaron Richards, Mrs. Hammer, Mrs. Mortimer Harris, and Mrs. Madeline Coslett took all the prizes down to San Jose, however, from the supper tournament at the local bridge club last Sunday night. So Monday's victory was merely partial.

"Tomorrow" evening there will be an open Howell tournament at the Palo Alto Bridge Club rooms.

MT. VIEW P. T. A. TO HONOR TEACHERS

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Oct. 25 (Special to the Times)—A reception will be held tonight in the Woman's Clubhouse by the Mountain View Parent-Teacher Association and the Woman's Club for the teachers of the Highway Elementary School in the Dana Street Primary School. Patrons and friends of the schools are invited.

Under the general chairmanship of Mrs. James Hadley, arrangements have been made for a short program and games. Later in the evening those who wish to play cards may do so. Refreshments will be served.

METHODIST WOMEN TO SERVE 'MYSTERY SUPPER'

The Doris Howard Circle of the First Methodist Episcopal Church will serve a "Mystery Supper" Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock at the club in the Dana Street Primary School. Patrons and friends of the schools are invited. Reservations may be telephoned to Mrs. Harry L. Page (Palo Alto 21257). The price is 40 cents and up.

Mrs. David Birchbush of San Francisco, Mrs. Fred Barry, and Mrs. Annette Bachman. Mrs. Fred A. Wickett and Mrs. Douglas McBryde are chairmen of the flower committee. Assisting are Mrs. H. L. Terwilliger, Mrs. Samuel Eastman, Mrs. Richard Lockay, Mrs. A. G. Kennedy, Mrs. Robert Odell, Mrs. Bailey Willis, Mrs. William M. O. H. Blackman, Mrs. Harry L. Haehl, Mrs. Marion Kirkwood, and Miss Florence Clayton.

Mrs. H. B. Torrey, Mrs. A. M. Espinosa and Mrs. C. H. Danforth are assembling the gourd. Anyone having chrysanthemums or other flowers for the sale are asked to take them to the gymnasium on the 30th or the morning of the 31st. Those who cannot deliver the flowers are asked to notify Palo Alto 5024 so that they may be called for.

Garden Show Held At Woodside

An autumn garden show was held today at the Woodside home of Mrs. William Wallace Matin, attracting flower-lovers from up and down the peninsula. Mrs. Paul Fay gave a luncheon before the show, as did Mrs. Ettore Avenall and Mrs. Stewart Elliott.

Miss Yost To Talk To Business Women

Miss Mary Yost, dean of women at Stanford University, will talk on opportunities for professional women at the Friday evening open house of the Palo Alto Business and Professional Woman's Club this week. The club will be at home from 8 to 10 o'clock at the clubhouse, 353 Lytton avenue, to members and friends. Miss Almee Peters will be the leader and Miss Grace Parke the hostess. The program will include talks by Miss Helen Vincent of the Community House free employment bureau; by Miss Mabel Barnard on the S.E.R.A. art educational project; and by Miss Elizabeth Wenk on vocations for women. Mrs. R. A. Ogg will sing.

TO SPEND WEEK-END AT ATHERTON

Miss Allene Hall of New York, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edward Crimmins in San Francisco, will spend the week-end at Atherton with Mr. Crimmins' mother, Mrs. Evan Williams, and Mr. Williams.

TAWANKA COUNCIL TO GIVE CARD PARTY

Tawanka Council No. 193, Degree of Poeshonata, will give its monthly card party Friday evening at 8:45 o'clock in the Shasta hall, Native Sons' building. Score cards will be 25 cents.

HALLOWEEN DANCE IS SCHEDULED

Lindbergh Lodge of the Palo Alto Swedish Society will hold a Halloween dance in the Masonic Temple on Saturday night, beginning at 9 o'clock. Admission will be 30 cents. Proceeds are to be devoted to the sickness fund.

Golf clubs in the country cover approximately a half million acres.
