Mr. M. A. Taylor

Dear Matt,

In Mr. Ball's letter of November 7th, he indicated the Texas Company were not going to give us full information for sheet except a tank was cleaned.

It looks like Texas Company's instructions were changed as a result of the meeting of terminal superintendents in New York. Please advise if they are holding up information or if they will give us full data on blending and storage tanks on terminals.

Very truly yours,

J. C. Taylor

I feel sure Texas is giving us full information on sheet II as Dr. Gray told me they would answer all questions except those on cracked gasoline, which information the terminal superintendents did not have.
