Dear George:

I have your letter of April 15th and am grateful to you and to Mac for the information you have provided. "Digging up an old bone" is exactly what these people did on the occasion I cited to you by telephone, but in that instance it was a provedly non-existent bone as well.

I am sending a copy of your letter, in confidence, to Bob Kehoe and shall be glad to let you know what comes from him.

This is probably just one of the frequent items of adverse publicity that we have to take in our stride and consign to the files.

Sincerely yours,
