PRESENT: THE HONORABLE LAWRENCE R. LEAVITT, U.S. Magistrate Judge

SECRETARY: Jean Penko RECORDER: None

COUNSEL FOR PLAINTIFF: None Appearing

COUNSEL FOR DEFENDANTS: None Appearing

This matter is before the Court on Defendant General Electric's Motion to Exceed Number of Interrogatories Propounded (# 362, filed May 14, 1993), and Plaintiff's Cross-Motion for Protective Order (#378, filed June 7, 1993). Having reviewed the motion, cross-motion, General Electric's reply (# 386, filed June 21, 1993) and all other relevant documents, and with good cause appearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that General Electric's Motion to Exceed Number of Interrogatories Propounded (#362) is denied in full.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that of the thirty-seven interrogatories propounded by General Electric on May 14, 1993, Plaintiff's Cross-Motion for Protective Order (#378) is hereby granted as to interrogatories #17, 18, 19, 20, 22, 36 and 37.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, of the remaining thirty interrogatories (#1-16, 21, and 23-35), Plaintiff's Cross-Motion is granted as to all but fifteen, which fifteen interrogatories General Electric may choose.
