Your changes look good. I have accepted them and also want to add one more sentence saying that Bill is a person of highest integrity. I will get you the final version as soon as my assistant gets back to the office.

I will send you a final, signed version, but it won't have a date on it. When you are ready to make the announcement, I will add a date, email it to you again, and also send it to Barrasso and Carper. I won't make any other changes, so you can use any quotes you may want from the version I will send you in the next hour.

Any idea when the White House will make the announcement?

Thanks Jeff, made some small edits to the letter (attached). If you are good with these I would ask that you put on letterhead, addressed to Barrasso/Carper, and send just us the final version. We will want to hold on sending the letter to the Chair/Ranking member until the intent to nominate is officially announced, at which point it can be sent to them.

Thanks again!

-Aaron

Here is a draft. If it looks OK to you, I will put it on letterhead and address it to Chairman Barrasso and Ranking Member Carper and send you (and them) a final version.
