Mr Wehrum,

I live in NYS were our AG Eric Schneiderman just successfully sued the EPA to enforce air pollution and smog In NYS. I find that fact a joke because NYS wont even enforce their own laws to protect NYS citizens from pollution.

“6 CRR-NY Chapter III, Subchapter A, Part 211: 211.1 Air pollution prohibited”:

“No person shall cause or allow emissions of air contaminants to the outdoor atmosphere of such quantity, characteristic or duration which are injurious to human, plant or animal life or to property, or which unreasonably interfere with the comfortable enjoyment of life or property. Notwithstanding the existence of specific air quality standards or emission limits, this prohibition applies, but is not limited to, any particulate, fume, gas, mist, odor, smoke, vapor, pollen, toxic or deleterious emission, either alone or in combination with others.”

My family and others in NYS have suffered over 8 years from INDOOR wood boilers. NYSDEC shuts down Outdoor boilers but refuses to shut down indoor boilers. Then NYSDEC staff turns around and tells the polluter to go with a Indoor boiler. This was documented in a central NY Administrative Law hearing.

I think this Part 211.1 might be part of a SIP, that outlines control strategies to reduce air pollution in nonattainment areas sent to the EPA. If it is then the EPA can force them to enforce it.

I have attached a picture of my neighbors indoor wood boiler. I am retired and cant afford a private nuisance suit . That they tell me is $80,000 with no guarantee

There is nobody that will address this!

Please help my family- John Lichak, [Ex. 6] Nassau, NY, [Ex. 6]
