

No. 283.

A. SUPPLEMENT

To the act, approved the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred thirty-six), entitled, as amended, "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employe in the course of employment; establishing an elective schedule of compensation; providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder; and prescribing penalties," as reenacted and amended, providing for the payment of compensation to volunteer firemen or their dependents.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Word "employe" to include members of volunteer fire companies of cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, and townships, for purposes of the act.

Section 1. In addition to those persons included within the definition of the word "employe" as defined in section one hundred and four of the act, approved the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred thirty-six), entitled, as amended, "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employe in the course of employment; establishing an elective schedule of compensation; providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder; and prescribing penalties," as last reenacted and amended at the regular legislative session of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine, there shall be included all members of volunteer fire companies of the various cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, and townships, who shall be and are hereby declared to be "employes" of such cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, for all the purposes of said act, and shall be entitled to receive compensation in case of injuries received while actually engaged as firemen or while going to or returning from any fire which the fire companies of which they are members shall have attended.

Compensation for injuries while engaged as firemen or going to or returning from fire.

When effective

Section 2. This act shall become effective ten days after final enactment.

APPROVED—The 21st day of June, A. D. 1939.
