

INTRODUCTION

The goal of this course is to provide the proper information so Ford and Lincoln/Mercury technicians can fix brake systems concerns right the first time. The information covered in this course includes brake system theory and operation, an overview of brake system diagnosis and an overview of the procedures used to correct common brake concerns.

REQUIRED COURSE MATERIALS

- Pen or Pencil
- The General Brake Theory and Operation Interactive Study Guide