Campbell Hill Eclipse

VOLUME 12. CAMPBELL HILL, ILLINOI[S] RIDAY, JUNE 23, 1905. NUMBER 16.

Everything New

The Little Leader

J. L. Pollock, Prop.

General Merchandise

Everything New

Dry Goods.

I am constantly receiving our spring stock of dry goods and hope to be able to satisfy the most fastidious in taste both in ... s and quality, in such as Ladies' I ... Goods, Ladies' and Children's Um ... s, Belts, Fans, Fancy and Plain H ... ite. A full line Staple Prints, D... ics, Etc.

My Shoe Stock

Is now complete. I handle noth... the best shoes; which are the ... The Hamilton-Brown Shoes have ... that no other house can or will ... with. Can furnish either men, l... boys with STRICTLY UP-TO... FOOTWEAR.

Groceries.

I carry a full line of both Staple and Fancy Groceries at the very lowest prices. Come in and get our prices before buying elsewhere.

RICHARDSON'S SUPERLATIVE BEST MADE IN ALL GRADES CARPETS

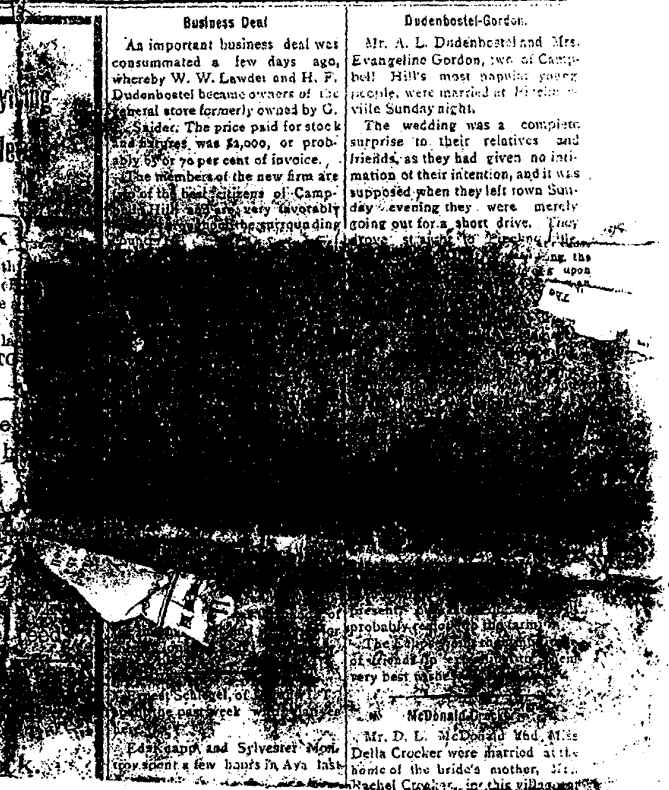

Lace Curtains
Window Shades
Curtain Furnishings

I handle the ... Porclain ... Get our p... Tinwa... my line of ... Ware; ... ebrate... Va... make, ...

To the Farmers.

Call and bring your produce, eggs, butter, etc. ... the HIGHEST PRICES for it.

Wm. Cenns, Mgr. J. L. P...ck.

Business Deal

An important business deal was consummated a few days ago, whereby W. W. Lawder and H. F. Dudenbostel became owners of the general store formerly owned by G. ... Snider. The price paid for stock and fixtures was $2,000, or probably 65 or 70 per cent of invoice.

The members of the new firm are ... of the best citizens of Campbell Hill and are very favorably ... the surrounding

Dudenbostel-Gordon.

Mr. A. L. Dudenbostel and Mrs. Evangeline Gordon, two of Campbell Hill's most popular young people, were married at ... ville Sunday night.

The wedding was a complete surprise to their relatives and friends, as they had given no intimation of their intention, and it was supposed when they left town Sunday evening they were merely going out for a short drive. They ... ing the ... upon ... ble.

... ek

... and Sylvester Mon... spent a few hours in Aya last ...

... probably ... Blairsville.

... The ... of friends in ... very best ...

McDonald-Crocker.

Mr. D. L. McDonald and Miss Della Crocker were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Rachel Crocker, in this village ...

0007-SWP-03208

N29095

Local Paragraphs

Rev. and Mrs. Ashby, of DeSoto, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. H. Hoover.

Miss Minnie Hartman is visiting at Red Bud.

Hardy Johnson spent Sunday with friends here.

Rev. J. W. McMillan was in Ava Wednesday.

Quite a number of Campbell Hill people attended the picnic at Willisville last Saturday.

Paul and Nellie Capps were visitors in Steeleville Sunday.

Miss Eola Knauer, of Ava, visited relatives here the first of the week.

Rev. C. A. Gordon went to Ava Sunday to attend the I. O. O. F. memorial services conducted at the Free Baptist church in that city by Revs. Fred Combes, of Murphysboro.

Misses Nettie and Pettis Barrow, Minnie and Ruth McMillan and Alta Barrow and Messrs. Eugene Barrow and W. H. Lively attended the institute at Murphysboro this week.

Mrs. F. Moist, [illegible] Friday.

FOR SALE—[illegible] new [illegible] cow and young calf. [illegible]

Mrs. J. [illegible] NO. [illegible] Jacksonville, is from [illegible] Colorado [illegible]

Grace G[illegible] Ava Wednesday.

Mrs. O[illegible] and little daughter, [illegible] are visiting [illegible] Paul [illegible]

[illegible] up. [illegible] Mid-summer [illegible] Pollock.

Miss Adelaide [illegible] several days in Ava [illegible] week caring for [illegible] band in the capacity of [illegible] nurse.

Ladies, call and look at my line of white goods. Dainty [illegible] Mid-summer prices. Pollock.

Mrs. Hilla Lipsett returned to her home at Wayne [illegible] after a visit with [illegible] comb and family, [illegible] Pollock.

Miss Emma Partridge, of Degognia, went to Murphysboro via this place Monday to attend the teachers' institute.

Now, ladies, come in and see our [illegible] at [illegible] Ward and High Point shoes. Strictly up-to-date. Mid-summer prices. Pollock.

Pesticide drives flies away from horses and cattle. It is put up in gallon cans and sold by Dennison Hanna for 75 cents.

Mr. Ed Knapp and little daughter, Nellie, drove to Chester Wednesday morning to be present at the marriage of Miss Anna Wiebusch of that city and Albert H. Hallenberg of St. Louis. The bride is Mr. Knapp's niece.

Miss Blanche Sisters, of St. Louis, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. R. G. Cockrell.

Full line of chambreys, Scotch lawns, extra quality baptistes, silk waisting, brocades, etc. Mid-summer prices. Pollock.

Dr. G. H. Lark was summoned to the home of his parents at Ava last Saturday by a telegram announcing the serious illness of his father.

Miss Rosa Brandhorst, who has been attending the school for deaf mutes at Jacksonville, returned home Thursday night of last week. Her mother went to St. Louis to meet her.

I have just got in the nearest line of queensware, glassware, Vandyke enamel ware, at prices that defy competition. Strictly the im-posted Meeker make. To see is to buy. Mid-summer prices. Pollock.

S. L. Monteith and family drove over to Chester Saturday night. Mr. Monteith returned Sunday and Mrs. Monteith and S. L., Jr., remained until Tuesday.

When you drink soda you want the best, and that means Lowe's. The place to get it in Campbell Hill is Cockrell's Ideal Ice Cream Parlor.

This office has just received from County Clerk Dan Power a copy of the "Rules of Order and of Business of the Board of Supervisors of Jackson County," nicely printed and bound in pamphlet form. In addition to the information indicated by the title the pamphlet also contains the names of all county officers, town clerks, town assessors, town collectors, commissioners of highways, school treasurers, school trustees, etc. Thank you, Dan.

Enjoy the [illegible] refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream, cake, etc.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. McDonald, of Ava, and is a young man of strict integrity. He was formerly engaged in the livery business here, but has for some time past been employed in the car shops at Springfield, Ill.

The bride is one of Campbell Hill's most charming young ladies and is deservedly popular and has a very wide circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonald will go to Percy Thursday to spend a few days visiting relatives, and will then go to Springfield to reside.

The Eclipse joins their many friends in extending best wishes.

R. M. Merrill has rented W. H. Weedon's photograph gallery in this village and will take pictures two days a week—Saturdays and Sundays. Mr. Merrill does good work, and parties desiring anything in his line should call on him.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Rogers have gone to Carbondale to reside. Mr. Rogers having secured a position in that city as wheat buyer for the Carbondale Mill and Elevator Company. We very much regret to lose these excellent young people as residents of our town but hope the change will be to their advantage.

You can buy cheap paint with few years' guarantee, but when the time is up the paint will have gone out of business. There is only one guarantee worth anything and that is of a well established reputation of long standing. The Sherwin-Williams lead and oil paints are backed by our own guarantee. Dean-Hanna Drug Company.

0007-SWP-039209

0007-SWP-00012258