Dear Don:

I am replying somewhat belatedly to your letter of October 17, but I suspect that you are aware of some of the difficulties which I have had to deal with in recent weeks, and that you will not be unduly surprised by my delay.

I have considered the question raised in your letter, and have talked with Mrs. Campbell about it. I approve, in principle, of your proposal, but the details of it will have to be worked out by you with her. However the two of you may wish to do this is up to your mutual convenience.

Mr. Leach of our business office, will be interested, no doubt in certain of the details, with respect to cost, and he can be counted on, as can Mrs. Campbell, to bring to me any matter that requires my consideration. There should be no cause, therefore, for any further prolonged delay.

Sincerely yours,

RAK:vr

Robert A. Kehoe, M.D.
