Me

Hey. It's Rusty. My other phone died and my Father accidentally took my charger to Chicago with him tonight. Would have texted earlier but I fell asleep on couch and just woke up. Is the cleaning lady coming to me tomorrow? If not no worries since I already cleaned Wednesday nite before my father came and if another day next week works better for her that is fine

She is coming today. I forgot your apartment number. She gets paid in cash. You will have to leave a message at the desk. Her English is very limited. Her name is (b) (6). I meant to text you but I went to sleep.

Me

So so. I paid $80 to have a clean apartment cleaned so hard to tell. She kind of missed putting things back in the right spots on the shelves but no biggie.
