

MARCUS B. BOND, M.D.
OCCUPATIONAL MEDICINE
1711 ARBUTUS STREET
GOLDEN, COLORADO 80401
(303) 232-7832

CURRICULUM VITAE

Place and date of birth: Miller County, Missouri, February 20, 1926

I. Education and Degrees

1. Westminster College, Fulton, Missouri: A. B., 1946.
2. Washington University School of Medicine, St. Louis: M. D., 1949.
3. University of Cincinnati, Cincinnati: Doctor of Industrial Medicine (Sc.D.). 1960

II. Experience and Training

1. St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Washington, D. C.: Rotating Internship, July, 1949 through June, 1950.
2. Evangelical Deaconess Hospital, St. Louis: Resident in General Practice, July-October, 1950.
3. Medical Officer, U. S. Army Medical Corps, Korea, Oct., 1950 - August, 1951; Ft. Leonard Wood, Missouri, August 1951 to July 1952.
4. Private solo General Practice, Kansas City, Missouri, July 1952 - June 1957.
5. Resident in Occupational Medicine, Kettering Laboratory, University of Cincinnati: June 1957 - June 1960. ((Atomic Energy Commission Fellow in Industrial Medicine 1957-59)
6. Headquarters Medical Director, Western Electric Company, New York, July 1960 - May 1962.
7. Corporate Medical Director, Mountain Bell Telephone, Denver, May 1962 - August 1973.
8. Corporate Medical Director, American Telephone & Telegraph Company, New York and Basking Ridge, New Jersey, September 1973 - July 1981. Retired with 22 years Bell System service.
9. Partner, Tabershaw Occupational Medicine Associates, July 1981 - September 1982, when this practice was sold to Control Data Corporation; served as Senior Occupational Physician for Control Data until December, 1983.
10. Consultant in Occupational Medicine & Toxicology, private practice, 1984 - present; serve as Occupational Medicine Consultant for several corporations.

- ### III.
- Certified as Specialist in Occupational Medicine by American Board of Preventive Medicine, 1963.

State Medical Licenses: MO, Ohio, NY, NJ, CO, MD

IV. Special Training in Occupational Pneumoconioses (pulmonary diseases due to work)

1. Radiology & Pathology of the Pneumoconioses, March, 9, 10, 11, 1973. Sponsored by American College of Radiology and National Institution for Occupational Safety & Health (NIOSH) (training for chest X-ray interpretation by International Labor Organization/University of Cincinnati (ILO/UC) method, emphasis on silicosis and coal workers' pneumoconiosis).
2. Radiology & Pathology of the Pneumoconioses, Feb. 8, 9, 10, 1980, sponsored by American College of Radiology and NIOSH, Dept. of Health & Human Services (ILO interpretation of chest X-rays/asbestosis).
3. VII International Pneumoconiosis Conference, August 23-26, 1988, sponsored by ILO, NIOSH, MSHA, OSHA & U. S. Bureau of Mines.

V. Professional Societies, Memberships, Boards, Committees

1. American Medical Association, Member 1952 - Present
 - a. Council on Occupational Health, 1972-73
 - b. Committee on Reproductive Hazards of the Workplace, 1981-86
2. Colorado & Denver Medical Societies, 1962-73 & 1981 - Present
 - a. have served on several committees and commissions
3. American College of Occupational & Environmental Medicine, Fellow 1954 - Present
 - a. Chair, ad hoc Committee on Low Back X-rays, 1962-64
 - b. Board of Directors, 1965-68 and 1974-77; President 1977-78
 - c. Recipient of Health Achievement in Industry Award, 1980
4. Ramazzini Society, Member 1974 - Present
 - a. Orator, annual meeting 1991, Miami, FL
5. Chamber of Commerce of the United States, Washington, D. C.
 - a. Committee on Nation's Health Care Needs, 1974-81
6. Community Medical Center, Morristown, NJ (acute care hospital)
 - a. Board of Trustees, 1975-79
7. Cheshire Home of New Jersey, Florham Park, NJ (physically handicapped)
 - a. Member of Board, Chair, Admissions Committee, 1978-81

8. Comprecare Health Care Services, Inc. (HMO of IPA Type, Colorado)
 - a. Board of Directors, Committees on Benefits, Nominations 1984-92
9. Comprecare Foundation (private foundation, Denver)
 - a. Board of Directors, Vice-Chair, 1986 - Present

VI. Scientific Publications

1. Bond, M. B. et al: Low Back X-rays: Criteria for their use in preplacement medical examinations, J Occup Med 1964; 6:273-280.
2. Bond, M. B. et al: An occupational health program: Costs vs. Benefits, AMA Arch Environ Health 1968; 17:408-415.
3. Bond, M. B.: Mental disease in employed persons, J Occup Med 1970; 39:49-54.
4. Bond, M. B.: Low back injuries in industry, Indust Med & Surg, 1970; 39:49-54.
5. Bond, M. B.: Occupational health services for small employee units, Rocky Mtn Med J., 1971: 68:31-36.
6. Bond, M. B.: Employability of cancer patients, Rocky Mtn. Med J, 1977: 74:153-156.
7. Bond, M. B.: Occupational health services for small plants and other small employee units, in Zenz C ed., Occupational Medicine, 1975, Chicago, Yearbook Medical Publishers, pp 1-19.
8. Messite, J. & Bond, M. B.: Special health problems of women workers, in Zenz C ed. Developments in Occupational Medicine, 1980, Chicago, Yearbook Medical Publishers, pp 43-138.
9. Bond, M. B.: Medical perspectives from the employers' viewpoint, in Seabrook E & Parkinson D, eds. Reproductive Health Policies in the Workplace Symposium, 1983, published by Family Health Council of Western Pennsylvania, Inc., Pittsburgh
10. Bond, M. B.: Video display terminals and reproductive health, Statement of the Am College Obstetrics & Gynecology, presented to U. S. House of Representatives, May 9, 1984.

11. Bond, M. B.: Role of corporate policy in control of reproductive hazards of the workplace. J Occup Med 1986, 28:193-196.
12. Bond, M. B: Reproductive hazards of the workplace. Contemporary OB/GYN, 1986; 28:57-66.
13. Bond, M. B.: Occupational health services for small businesses and other small employee groups, in Zenz C, ed. Occupational Medicine, 2nd ed. 1988, Chicago, Yearbook Medical Pub., pp 89-98.
14. Messite, J. & Bond, M. B.: Reproductive toxicology and occupational exposure, in Zenz C, ed. Occupational Medicine 2nd ed. Chicago, 1988, Yearbook Medical Publishers pp 837-908.
15. Bond, M. B.: Toxicity of Cadmium, testimony before OSHA Hearing on Proposed Cadmium Standard, July 18, 1990. Written report is Exhibit 77, Docket H-05a, 1990, U. S. Dept. Labor, Wash. D. C.
16. Bond, M. B.: Toxicity of Cadmium and its compounds. Text of presentation in Am. Coll. Occ. & Env. Medicine Post-graduate Seminar on Toxicology, May 5, 1992. Washington, D. C.
17. Bond, M. B.: Occupational health services for small businesses and other small employee groups, in Zenz C, Dickerson, O. B. and Horvath, E., editors, Occupational Medicine, 3rd ed. 1994. Mosby - Year Book Publishers, St. Louis.

VII. Academic Appointments

1. Asst. Clinical Prof, Prev. Med, Univ Colo Med School, 1964-73
2. Clinical Professor, Occupational Medicine, College of Medicine and Dentistry of NJ, Piscataway, NJ 1981-82
3. Clinical Professor, Dept. Prev. Med & Biostatistics, Univ Colo Health Sciences Center, Denver, 1982 - Present

IIIV. Personal

1. Married, three daughters

MARCUS B. BOND, M.D.

OCCUPATIONAL MEDICINE
1711 ARBUTUS STREET
GOLDEN, COLORADO 80401
(303)232-7832

CURRICULUM VITAE

Place and date of birth: Miller County, Missouri, February 20, 1926.

I. Education and Degrees

- A. Westminster College, Fulton, Missouri: A.B., 1946.
- B. Washington University School of Medicine, St. Louis: M.D., 1949.
- C. University of Cincinnati, Cincinnati: Doctor of Industrial Medicine (Sc.D.), 1960.

II. Experience and Training

- A. St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Washington, DC: Rotating Internship, July 1949 - June, 1950.
- B. Evangelical Deaconess Hospital, St. Louis: Resident in General Practice, July - October, 1950.
- C. Medical Officer, U.S. Army Medical Corps, Korea, October, 1950 - August 1951; Ft. Leonard Wood, Missouri, August, 1951 - July, 1952.
- D. Private Solo General Practice, Kansas City, Missouri, July, 1952 - June, 1957.
- E. Resident in Occupational Medicine, Kettering Laboratory, University of Cincinnati: June, 1957 - June, 1960. (Atomic Energy Commission Fellow in Industrial Medicine, 1957 - 1959).
- F. Headquarters Medical Director, Western Electric Company, New York, July, 1960 - May, 1962.
- G. Corporate Medical Director, Mountain Bell Telephone, Denver, CO, May 1962 - August, 1973.
- H. Corporate Medical Director, American Telephone & Telegraph Company, New York and Basking Ridge, NJ, September, 1973 - July 1981. Retired with 22 years Bell System Service.
- I. Partner, Tabershaw Occupational Medicine Associates, July, 1981 - September 1982, when this practice was sold to Control Data Corporation; served as Senior Occupational Physician for Control Data until December, 1983.
- J. Consultant in Occupational Medicine and Toxicology, private practice, 1984 - present; serve as Occupational Medicine Consultant for several corporations.

III. Certified Specialist in Occupational Medicine by American Board of Preventive Medicine, 1963

- A. State Medical Licenses: MO, OH, NY, NJ, CO, MD.

MARCUS B. BOND, MD

IV. Special Training in Occupational Pneumoconioses (pulmonary diseases due to work)

- A. Radiology & Pathology of Pneumoconioses, March 9 - 11, 1973, sponsored by American College of Radiology and National Institute for Occupational Safety & Health (NIOSH) (training for chest x-ray interpretation by International Labor Organization/University of Cincinnati (ILO/UC) method, emphasis on silicosis and coal workers' pneumoconiosis).
- B. Radiology & Pathology of the Pneumoconioses, February 8-10, 1980, sponsored by American College of Radiology and NIOSH, Department of Health & Human Services (ILO interpretation of chest x-rays - asbestos).
- C. VII International Pneumoconiosis Conference, August 23-26, 1988, sponsored by ILO, NIOSH, MSHA, OSHA and U.S. Bureau of Mines.

V. Professional Societies, Memberships, Boards, Committees

- A. American Medical Association, Member 1952 - present.
 - 1. Council on Occupational Health, 1972 - 1973.
 - 2. Committee on Reproductive Hazards of the Workplace, 1981 - 1986.
- B. Colorado & Denver Medical Societies; 1962 - 1973 and 1981 - present.
 - 1. Have served on several committees and commissions.
- C. American College of Occupational & Environmental Medicine, Fellow 1954 - 1993.
 - 1. Chair, ad hoc Committee on Low Back X-Rays, 1962 - 1964.
 - 2. Board of Directors, 1965 - 1968 and 1974 - 1977; President, 1977 - 1978.
 - 3. Recipient of Health Achievement in Industry Award, 1980.
- D. Chamber of commerce of the United States, Washington, DC.
 - 1. Committee on Nation's Health Care Needs, 1974 - 1982.
- E. Community Medical Center, Morristown, NJ (acute care hospital).
 - 1. Board of Trustees, 1975 - 1979.
- F. Cheshire Home of New Jersey, Florham Park, NJ (physically handicapped).
 - 1. Member of Board, Chair, Admissions Committee, 1978 - 1981.
- G. Compicare Health Care Services, Inc. (HMO of IPA Type, Colorado).
 - 1. Board of Directors, Committees on Benefits, Nominations, 1984 - 1992.
- H. Compicare Foundation (private foundation, Denver, CO).
 - 1. Board of Directors, Vice-Chair, 1986 - present.

VI. Scientific Publications

- A. Bond, M B et al: Low Back X-Rays: Criteria for their use in preplacement medical examinations, J Occup Med 1964; 6:273-280.
- B. Bond, M B et al: An occupational health program: Costs vs. Benefits, AMA Arch Environ Health 1968; 17:408-415.
- C. Bond, M B: Mental disease in employed persons, J Occup Med 1970; 11:663-668.
- D. Bond, M B: Low back injuries in industry, Indust Med & Surg, 1970; 39:49-54.
- E. Bond, M B: Occupational health services for small employee units, Rocky Mtn Med J, 1971; 68:31-36.

MARCUS B. BOND, MD

- F. Bond, M B: Employability of cancer patients, Rocky Mtn Med J, 1977; 74:153-156.
- G. Bond, M B: Occupational health services for small plants and other small employee units, in Zenz C ed., Occupational Medicine, 1975, Chicago, Yearbook Medical Publishers, pp 1-19.
- H. Messite J & Bond, M B: Special health problems of women workers, in Zenz C ed., Developments in Occupational Medicine, 1980, Chicago, Yearbook Medical Publishers, pp 43-138.
- I. Bond, M B: Medical perspectives from the employers' viewpoint, in Seabrook E & Parkinson D, eds. Reproductive Health Policies in the Workplace: A Symposium, 1983, published by Family Health Council of Western Pennsylvania, Inc., Pittsburgh.
- J. Bond, M B: Video display terminals and reproductive health, Statement of the American College Obstetrics & Gynecology, presented to U.S. House of Representatives, May 8, 1984.
- K. Bond, M B: Role of corporate policy in control of reproductive hazards of the workplace. J Occup Med, 1986; 28:193-196.
- L. Bond, M B: Reproductive hazards of the workplace. Contemporary OB/GYN, 1986; 28:57-66.
- M. Bond, M B: Occupational health services for small businesses and other small employee groups, in Zenz C, ed. Occupational Medicine, 2nd ed., 1988, Chicago, Yearbook Medical Publishers, pp 89-98.
- N. Messite J & Bond, M B: Reproductive toxicology and occupational exposure, in Zenz C, ed. Occupational Medicine, 2nd ed., Chicago, 1988, Yearbook Medical Publishers, pp 837-908.
- O. Bond, M B: Toxicity of Cadmium, testimony before OSHA hearing on Proposed Cadmium Standard, July 18, 1990. Written report is Exhibit 77, Docket H-05a, 1990, U.S. Department of Labor, Washington, DC.
- P. Bond, M B: Toxicity of Cadmium and its compounds. Text of presentation American College of Occupational Environmental Medicine post-graduate seminar of toxicology, May 5, 1992, Washington, D.C.
- Q. Bond, M B: Occupational health services for small business and other small employee groups, in Zenz C, Dickerson O B, and Horvath E, editors. Occupational Medicine, 3rd ed., 1993, Mosby - Yearbook Publishers, St. Louis, MO.

VII. Academic Appointments

- A. Assistant Clinical Professor, Preventive Medicine, University of Colorado Medical School, 1964 - 1973.
- B. Clinical Professor, Occupational Medicine, College of Medicine and Dentistry of NJ, Piscataway, NJ, 1981 - 1982.
- C. Clinical Professor, Department of Preventive Medicine & Biostatistics, University of Colorado Health Sciences Center, Denver, CO, 1982 - present.

VIII. Personal

- A. Married, three daughters.