

Here Swims the Birdel

"Happy the bride that the sun shines on," says the old adage, but what chance has the sun when the wedding is performed underwater? That's what happened at the Los Angeles National Boat Show, when Katie Wilson and J. F. Gutrick were married 19 feet under water, with the Rev. Sheldon Shepherd officiating. Bride, groom and minister wore diving helmets equipped with microphones, as shown in this picture, taken by a submarine cameraman. However, as the inset indicates, they had to come to the surface and remove their helmets to get in a satisfactory wedding kiss.

ARTIST'S WIFE FIGHTS TO KEEP RARE ANTIQUES

NEW YORK, April 15. — Mrs. Julian Lander, whose wife of a portrait painter, was entertained today in a studio apartment at the National Arts Club in Greenwich Park, standing off a group of representatives of her husband's estate seeking to seize $100,000 worth of antiques.

Mrs. Lander, proprietor of the Lander Galleries, in East Fifth street, after a long fight in the courts to keep possession of the priceless Spanish and Italian paintings, which she claims were given to her by her husband.

Lander was born in Reno, Nev., and her husband, Julian Lander, had attempted to sell a paddock to the police.

GOLD STAR UNIT TO BE DISMISSED IF USING WINE

NEW YORK, April 15. — Army officers who will have charge of the forthcoming Gold Star mothers and war widows' assistance to the French war veterans today had been warned that if they drink the wines of France or any other liquor they will be dismissed from the service.

At a meeting in the Hotel Pennsylvania, Quartermaster General John L. Dewitt, said to the officers.

You must remember that you have been chosen because of certain qualifications. The most important of these is sobriety. No officer must indulge in intoxicants. You will be subject to the more minute observation. Army officers will be judged by this trip.

BILL IN CANADA WOULD LEGALIZE HOTEL ROOM SALE

HALIFAX, April 16. (AP) — The sale of beer and wine in hotel dining rooms and by the liquor concession by the glass or open bottle is proposed in an amendment to the governor general bill, moved by Premier E. N. Rhodes in the house of assembly. The amendment which is drafted to replace a section which prohibited sale of liquor by hotel experts provides that such sale will not take place in any municipality in which the practice is now in vogue.
