record which --

MS. TOSTANOSKI: Your Honor, it is only a couple of questions.

What I will do is make copies of those pages of the deposition and have them marked as a Court's exhibit so we don't have to take up the jury's time now.

Your Honor, I have objections and you should have copies of my objections to McAllister, and I don't need to argue them, but just to let Your Honor know, they are page 98, 18; 195, line 7, and 195, 16, and I will say objection when we get to that point, but they are all calling for an opinion from a lay witness.

THE COURT: All right. I will rule on them when we get to them.

Who will be doing the questioning?

MR. IGNATOWSKI: Mr. Smith, I am going to do the answers.

THE COURT: Mr. Smith, the questions. Mr. Ignatowski the answers.
