Subject: Tomorrow's Policy Roundtable

Dear Samantha,

I would like to thank you again for scheduling a much needed session tomorrow with you. This is going to be a very highly attended roundtable, one of the biggest we've had since we met with EPA Administrator Johnson during the George W. Bush Administration. As you can imagine, the last 8 years have been very challenging. The confirmation of Scott Pruitt—who as part of the Trump team, has been like rays of sunlight in a darkened room—has been encouraging beyond measure. I haven't seen my business coalition members so enthusiastic about working together with the federal agencies in a long time.

If you have any questions regarding tomorrow's roundtable, please let me know and we can schedule a time to talk today. If you provide me with the best number to reach you on, I can make myself available.

Thanks again for taking the time to meet with these business leaders. It will be a mutually beneficial session.

Sincerely,

Wayne Valis
