Dear John:

Thanks for sending your list of invitees to our Friday GE/J-M meeting.

We plan to be at your office in Room 714 at 570 Lexington Avenue at 11:45 a.m. this Friday, January 12, ready for lunch in your Second Floor Executive Dining Room, followed by the meeting from 1:00 to 3:30 p.m.

The program as we finalized it today after the several helpful talks with you will be:

Opening Remarks	- W. H. (Bill) Bartlett Product Group Manager Industrial Products Divisio
Introduction of J-M Panel	- F. J. (Jack) Solon, Jr. Vice President Environmental Affairs
An Overview of the Biological Aspects of Asbestos	- Dr. George W. Wright Medical Consultant to Johns-Manville
OSHA Asbestos Regulations	- Hugh M. Jackson Director Employee Relations
OSHA Monitoring Requirements	- E. M. (Ed) Fenner Director Environmental Control

J-M Engineering Control Procedures	- D. E. (Don) Hillier Director Environmental Engineering
The Impact of OSHA Regulation on Medical Surveillance at J-M	- Dr. E. F. (Ell) Marriner Corporate Medical Director
Product Usage in General Electric	- W. C. (Bill) Roth Product Marketing Manager Electrical Insulations Industrial Products Divisi

Questions/Answers and Discussion

With our group will also be H. G. (Mike) Donovan, Product Marketing Manager, Asbestos Fibre Division.

We hope to keep formal presentations to one hour and 15 minutes, leaving the same amount of time for questions and answers and discussion.

As we talked on the phone, we will need a large screen and a Kodak Carousel Projector with an 80-slide changer control at the podium.

With amphitheater style, it might be best to place our panel of eight at a large table at one side of the floor platform with a speaker's podium at the other side. I will see you when I'm in New York Thursday and we can handle any final details.

We'll have for each of you a packet of reference material which we hope will prove helpful.

We're very pleased at the turnout of GE people you expect. At our meeting this morning, Dr. Wright said he was looking forward to seeing Drs. Kline and Pocock again. And I know you are already acquainted with Hugh Jackson. By the way, we plan to provide our group with badges so we can get acquainted quickly at lunch - it would be helpful to us if you might do the same.

I'll phone you at your Westport home when I get to New York Wednesday evening.

Thanks for all of your help in arranging this meeting.

Sincerely,

bcc-W. H. Bartlett
H. G. Donovan
E. M. Fenner
D. E. Hillier
H. M. Jackson
E. F. Marriner, M.D.
W. C. Roth
