Dear Nancy:

Thank you for participating in the Bloomberg “Chemical Policy Summit -- TSCA at 2: An Update on Implementation and Hot Topics” webinar today. We are especially appreciative of your participating remotely from your hotel in North Dakota. Your summary of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency’s recent implementation measures was excellent and the audience was very fortunate to hear these developments directly from you. We are grateful to you for being so generous with your time and commitment to excellence.

Sincerely,

Lynn L. Bergeson
