KEM-GLO tests and grades the total load on the body, not just the knees and ankles with many other tests. It measures and controls harmful compression forces on the spine, hips, knees, ankles, feet, and joints. It is the only test that can detect and correct spinal misalignment, muscle imbalance, and joint dysfunction. It is the only test that can detect and correct the root cause of many chronic pain conditions. It is the only test that can detect and correct the root cause of many chronic pain conditions.
