Subject: EPA Mission

Dear Sir or Madam,

Having read your recent press release regarding the Associated Press coverage of Chemical Plant discharges in Houston, I have to wonder if the EPA's new mission is to be a mouth organ of the Trump White House, rather than a Protector of the American People. Your shameful, brutish and frankly amateurish, effort to discredit a writer and news agency smacks of the worst kind of press suppression we see in Third World Dictatorships. Citing the Oklahoman? Twice? Sad.

You should be ashamed, but given the apparent new mission of the EPA to reverse protections afforded our citizens and to do everything in its power to protect the profits and shareholder value of polluters, I can only assume that you have no shame.

Sincerely,

William M Woods

(Go ahead and put me on your Enemies List. It's a badge of honor.)
