Wilmington, Delaware

Attention of Mr. E. B. Nelson, Div. Pur. Agt.

Gentlemen:

On February 3, 1938, contracts were executed by your company and ours under which we have been supplying, since that date, your requirements of Basic Lead Carbonate - Dry, Basic Lead Carbonate - Grinders', and White Lead-in-Oil. These agreements expire on February 2, 1940.

As stated to you in our recent conversation, we shall be pleased to renew the contracts for the period beginning February 3, 1940 and ending February 28, 1942. It is our understanding that this is your desire.

If agreeable to you we shall consider acknowledgment and acceptance of this letter as evidence that the contracts shall continue in effect until February 28, 1942, all other terms and conditions remaining unchanged.

We wish to take this opportunity to express our appreciation of the privilege of serving your company. Please be assured that a relationship covering a period of so many years which has built up such a feeling of confidence and friendship is highly valued by us.

Yours very truly,

E. I. DUPONT DE NEMOURS & CO.
