Forty-Niners Get Much Applause

One of the things in the Parade of The Three Occupations yesterday which attracted a good deal of notice and applause was the forty-niner's sled or "rastra," as the Spanish called it, driven by A. A. Manuel.

Manuel is a pioneer Californian and has for the last 55 years been a resident of Monterey. The "49'er" was represented by David Cervantes, a native Montereyan of one of the well-known Spanish families of the early days.

all burned. I never saw any of the other fellows. I guess Bill was trapped in the kitchen. I think the others were burned while they slept."
